BUSINESS AND THE STARS:—
To every twinkling star of Heaven,
Lo! some mortal's fate is given.
Roback reads them all and tells
The secret that in each one dwells;
Every beam to him's a line
Full of mysteries divino.
And with magic wisdom he
Casts your true nativity.
In the stars he sees each chance
To retard you or advance—
Love and debt, and health, and trade,
Wesl or wee of man and maid—
All that fate hath er decreed,
With advice to suit your need
By his artare all made clear.
Come, then, ye who hope or fear,
And your firm attention fix
On Roback, White street, number six.
